Because your community is a membership association, each member (owner) is expected to comply with the directives set forth in the governing documents. If you need a copy of said documents, please contact the management company. If this is occupied by anyone other than an owner, it is imperative that a copy of the CC&Rs, Bylaws, and Association Rules and Regulations be made available to the tenant/resident. Any failure by the tenant/resident to follow the Association rules may bring consequences to the owner of the unit.

PLEASE RETURN BY MAIL, FAX OR EMAIL PROMPTLY – THANK YOU.
